Our Christian Value this half term is Forgiveness

In collective worship and spiritual reflection this week, the children learnt about the story 70 x 7 and how Jesus wanted his followers to get in the habit of forgiving those who ask for forgiveness.

ATTENDANCE MATTERS

Our classes with the highest attendance this week are...

A day all about books

What a fantastic day the children had celebrating this year's World Book Day! Every child from Nursery to Year 5 sashayed their fabulous costumes down our traditional catwalk as well as taking part in lots of exciting reading activities throughout the day, including paired reading with other year groups. The children were also delighted to see the staff dressed up as characters from traditional fairy tales! To help celebrate this event, a book fair will be at both bases until Wednesday 13th March, so please do come along.

Reading Challenge

To celebrate World Book Day, we are hosting a reading challenge. Can you find the most unusual place to read your book and send us a photo of yourself reading through Seesaw in that weird and wonderful setting. We look forward to seeing your entries and will share some of them in the Newsletter next week. Thank you and happy reading.

Year 1 Mothers' Day Service

What a fantastic performance the children gave during their Mothers' Day Service on Friday! They all said their lines beautifully, sang with such passion and enthusiasm, whilst always behaving exceptionally. There was not a dry eye in the house! You have all made your parents and teachers so proud Year One, well done!

R Teme's CLASS Spectacular

R Teme showcased their learning with a wonderful, wintry class assembly on Tuesday morning. The children reflected on their last topic 'Winter Wonderland' and shared their learning including lots of facts, artwork, a polar song and penguin dance. R Teme did a wonderful job learning lines and moves for their very first class assembly and we are so very proud of their confidence and clarity. Well done R Teme!

Cavendish CARE HOME

An afternoon with friends

The joy that young children bring!

Some of our Nursery children have visited Cavendish Care Home again today. The children have developed wonderful relationships with the residents and it is delightful to see the joy that the children bring. This week our focus was 'World Book Day' where one of the residents read us a delightful nursery rhyme. We then sang, danced and played games around this theme.
